

SINCE YOU LEFT

Låpsley

In your white shirt, summer nights, fingers tracing up my thighs
Felt pretty dressing up for your eyes
Stockholm, Amsterdam, tell me where this love can land 1920s letters and telegrams
I'm giddy like a child queuing for a rollercoaster
Counting down the days and nights
Days and nights
I'm waiting for you

Come on home 'cause I just wanna kiss your back
And touch you all the ways I missed you since you left, you left, you left
I'll be standing at the airport waiting
I've been dreaming of your hands, they're taking off my dress, my dress, my dress
All our conversations running through my head, through my head
There's an empty place where you lied in my bed, in my bed
Come on home 'cause I just wanna kiss your back

Old school photo booth, I've been changing, you've been too
We've been making promises, it's new for me, I'm honest
So you gotta print the world in blue
And if you wanna try
The days and nights
I'm waiting for you

Come on home 'cause I just wanna kiss your back
Since you left
I'll be standing at the airport waiting
I've been dreaming of your hands, they're taking off my dress, my dress, my dress
I'm waiting for you
All our conversations running through my head, through my head
There's an empty place where you lied in my bed, in my bed
Come on home 'cause I just wanna kiss your back

Come on home 'cause I just wanna kiss your back
I'll be standing at the airport waiting
I've been dreaming of your hands, they're taking off my dress,

my dress, my dress

All our conversations running through my head, through my head

There's an empty place where you lied in my bed, in my bed

Come on home 'cause I just wanna kiss your back

And touch you all the ways I missed you since you left
