

Lucky One

Lapush

Come on love just once more and I'll tell you everything you want to hear
You don't have to waste your time on excuses on why you're falling out of line

Well, we don't have to talk
We'll just stay here in our houses
Well, we don't have to talk
You're a lucky one that i lean on

Come on love just once more
You can tell I'm talking with a reckless head
Take your time just one look
I can tell you I'm cracking like a window pane

Well, we don't have to talk
We'll just stay here in our houses
Well, we don't have to talk
You're a lucky one that I lean on
