

Run

Lapush

Day is young
Innocent and pale
Alone in the hall
I wait to take you there
Instead you run
With the eyes of a sullen girl
You came undone
And you left me here alone

You needed proof
I couldnt take it from the start
When youre stuck
Alone on the blvd
But I was in
I was inside true love
Race you home
But you left a broken heart

Dont you run and hide
Its only pride
I wont leave tonight
All that youve left behind
I want you to live scientist
I will be the one to teach you
All your faults all your flaws
I want to see the bright lights

This time dont pass me by
With a kiss a tear betrayed in the garden
This life will pass you by
Too many years have dried
Your guilty conscious heart

Dont you run and hide
Its only pride
I wont leave tonight
All that youve left behind
I want you to live scientist
I will be the one to teach you
All your faults all your flaws
I want to see the bright lights
