

Bloom Again

Larkin Poe

Who won the fight?
Did we both lose?
The same old excuse
I'm worn out and tired of crossing lines
Again and again
We know where we've been
Can't leave the past behind

Don't close the door
My heart can't take more
In between us
Here comes the rain
It's always the same
Can our love bloom again?

The darkest of nights
We pushed and we pulled
I acted so cruel
Why did I need to see you cry
Before I could feel?
What you felt was real
Let's try something new this time

Don't close the door
My heart can't take more
In between us
Here comes the rain
It's always the same
Can our love bloom again?

Open the door
We both know there's more
In between us
Here comes the sun
I know you're the one
And our love blooms again
