

Every Bird That Flies

Larkin Poe

The only one that's hurting
Is the only one alive
You wonder if it's worth it
Been burned too many times
Lay down in the tall grass
Look up at the sky
Suddenly you're free as
Every bird that flies

Every bird that flies
Every bird that flies
Suddenly you're free as
Every bird that flies

That wicked call to barkin'
That's workin' on my dog
Coming out the darkness
Mixing with the fog
The devil's in the tree line
Full moon on the rise
And suddenly he's free as
Every bird that flies

Every bird that flies
Every bird that flies
Suddenly you're free as
Every bird that flies
Every bird that flies
Every bird that flies

Suddenly you're free as
Every bird that flies

Tryin' to get to heaven
With all this hell to pay
It only gets you deeper
With every working day
When all you got is nothing
And you're waiting 'round to die
Suddenly you're free as
Every bird that flies

Every bird that flies
Every bird that flies
Suddenly you're free as
Every bird that flies
Every bird that flies
Every bird that flies
Suddenly you're free as
Every bird that flies

Every bird that flies
Every bird that flies
Every bird that flies
Every bird that flies
Every bird that flies

Suddenly you're free as
Every bird that flies
