

When God Closes A Door

Larkin Poe

Turn the TV on
Let's watch a good show
Matthew, Mark, Luke and John
See how the gospel goes
In a getaway car
There's lots of bad guys
Jesus Christ superstar
He's got the power to baptize

When god closes a door
God leads you up the stairs
Leave your earthly cares
On the second floor
Then god cracks a couple skulls
God cracks a couple more
His plate is full
On the second floor

The virgin mother
And the Babylon whore
Pick 'em off one by one
Soap opera holy war
All the sinners involved
An act of treason
The mystery is unsolved
Until the second season

When god closes a door
God leads you up the stairs
Leave your earthly cares
On the second floor
Then god cracks a couple skulls
God cracks a couple more
His plate is full
On the second floor

Big mo out of Mecca
Can't seem to take a joke
They're shooting up Paris
They're blowing that smoke
I'm gonna sing satanic verses
In a sovereign land
I'm gonna blasphemy and blasphemy
Just because I can

When my god...
On the second floor

When god closes a door
God leads you up the stairs
Leave your earthly cares
On the second floor
Then god cracks a couple skulls
His plate is full
On the second floor

When god closes a door
God leads you up the stairs
On the second floor
When god closes a door
God leads you up the stairs
