

Grandpas passed down pick up couple of hiccups under the hood
Spent all summer with it trying to get it running good
Man I bet I'dve had it running great
If that 24/7 was 25/8

Jesus, mama, football that's 'bout all we know around here
Breathe it, bleed it, undefeated season senior year
Whole town freaked out when we took it all the way to state
We practiced 24/7 lost 25-8

Be a couple less coulda been's and ones that got away
A whole lot more beer to drink and hell to raise
Who knows what I did wrong
Or finally get right
If I had more time to have
The time of my life
Well all my favorite stories would have one more page
If 24/7 was 25/8

She flew in from California for Daytona for that week
Next thing I know I got her wishin' home was Tennessee
Still think we'd a been more than just that one spring break
If that 24/7 was 25/8

Be a couple less coulda been's and ones that got away
A whole lot more beer to drink and hell to raise
Who knows what I did wrong
Or finally get right
If I had more time to have
The time of my life
Well all my favorite stories would have one more page
If 24/7 was 25/8

Just one more day
I know father time ain't sellin'
But there's no tellin' what I'd pay
For sometimes time running out can run a little bit late
And made 24/7 25/8
I wish 24/7 was 25/8

Be a couple less coulda been's and ones that got away
A whole lot more beer to drink and hell to raise
Who knows what I did wrong
Or finally get right
If I had more time to have
The time of my life
All my favorite stories would have one more page
If 24/7 was 25/8
But 24/7 ain't 25/8
