

Lied About Love

Larry Fleet

You say you're scared of where we are right now
You recognize the road we're going down
From the last time
But, honey, I ain't that guy

I bet he had you hanging on a string
And made you think it was the real thing
But that ain't fair to you
And it sure ain't fair to me

Who told you it was complicated
Who tricked your heart and left you lonely, baby
Ain't supposed to keep you up all night
Put tears in your eyes
So who, who lied about love to you

They say it's patient, it's honest and kind
From what I've heard it looks a whole lot like
You and me right now
So close your eyes and let me lay you down

Who told you it was complicated
Who tricked your heart and left you lonely, baby
Ain't supposed to keep you up all night
Put tears in your eyes
So who, who lied about love to you

Who told you it was complicated
Who tricked your heart and left you lonely, baby
Ain't supposed to keep you up all night
Put tears in your eyes
So who, who lied about love to who
Yeah, who lied about love to you
Mmm, yeah, he lied, he lied
