

Unconditional Guarantee

Larry Graham

Hoo, hoo

Everybody loves the summer, when it leaves, nobody wonders
Will it ever come again
When you see the sun risin' after sunset
Will it ever come again

We all know that time must pass
And our love forever will last

It's an unconditional guarantee
Seasons come and go, it will always be
It's an unconditional guarantee
I'll always love you

When the ocean kissed the sand, then it goes away, you tell me
"Will it ever come again?"
Will the stars come out at night, will the moon give us its Everlastin' light

We all know that time must pass
And our love forever will last

It's an unconditional guarantee (Unconditional guarantee)
Seasons come and go, it will always be (Always be)
It's an unconditional guarantee
I'll always love you

Something we can't see
Until it's passed in history
That you can be sure
With each passin' day, I'll love you more and more
Oh, yeah, yeah-yeah

We all know that time must pass
And our love forever will last

It's an unconditional
Unconditional (Unconditional)
Unconditional guarantee (Unconditional guarantee)
Unconditional (Unconditional)
Unconditional (Unconditional)
It's an unconditional guarantee (Unconditional guarantee)

It's an unconditional guarantee
