

Aye Wait

Larry June

I remember niggas talkin' down like
"He'll never make it out the hood"
I'm never goin' Hollywood, but the rap game get it - understood
Calculate my steps, discipline myself, achievin' higher wealth
Went through the pain, did it by myself
Started in the Bay, sent the bitch to Reno, then I killed Vegas
Look at all these chains wrapped around my neck
But I'm not a slave
I'm a boss, I need my costs, I'm not a rap hoe
Fuck a show, I'm cattin' off, I don't wanna go

I need ten bands, twenty bands, thirty bands
I'm in a minivan on the interstate with hella Xan
You a house nigga, the type of nigga that be pillow talkin'
I'm a whip-copper, designer-rocker, God damn
I'm the same nigga, I'll never change, fuck fame
I got a $100K in my backpack, I'm on the martyr train
I gotta blend in, maneuver through the faith, had to elevate
Condo out the way, had to play it safe
Damn

Loadin' up the ammunition, everything I'm doin', bruh, I manifested
I'm paranoid, I think they watchin' me
Grab the choppa out the kitchen
.40 on my waist, I'm at Whole Foods, I just did a plate
I move a lil' different, I should do a documentary, my life is crazy
Trappin' off the iPhone, turned that bitch into a [?] scale
Presidential with the face on it, I pray to God I don't go back to ja il
I'm a motherfuckin' legend, hoe, hit the road, I put 'em in a mill
They swagga-jackin to these bitches, they be cattin'
Send the bitch like UPS package
Ridin' 'round in my undo, 'cause the knarks lookin' for my black [?]
Put a navigation on a pack incase a nigga bullshittin', light the AK
I'm a real nigga, I don't bite my tongue
With no hesitation kick a bitch out
She run back to you, you take the bitch back
And then you kiss the bitch with the dick-mouth
Took a big loss, but I bounced back
My connect hit me for 'bout five racks
Then my [?] blue on my black Beamer
You know they waxed a nigga for 'bout ten racks
It cost to be the boss, nigga, is you ready?
If you get some time, nigga, is you tellin'?
Take it like a man
If I die tonight, baby, would you care? Help me understand
