

Drinks With Tracy

Larry June

So I seen this girl, you know what I'm saying, walking
Looking very gorgeous
First thing I said was sock it to me
Bitch you looking amazing
Numbers! Good job

Man verse one I woke up and I thanked God
Cause every time I reach in my pocket its a knot
Every time I walk into my show its a lock
Every time I knock a new hoe I go up
Back to the mother fuckin' block
Keep one up top and ten in my sock
I'm trying to live I got shit to do
Don't worry bout me bitch worry bout you
There was a bitch around the way I liked her a lot
I approached her and told her bitch your going to the top
I'm a man with a plan I got goals and shit
I rock white tees at my shows and shit
Rolex diamonds, lifes amazing
Bitch had buns so I hit it for days
Told the bitch deuces cause I'm working on my tape
She think about me every time she land in the bay (What's happenin')

Man verse 2, I saw the bitch leaving whole foods
Bounced out quick I'm in the 442
Hit her with a line that was smooth
Then 3 weeks later let the bitch slide thru
Then I made a turn on Lasalle
She lived in Hermo' so I jumped in my Nav'
What's happenin' you looking hella nice today
She's a goer but you know there's a price to pay
Drop top Caddies in the summer
Bitch hop in, we finna paint the town
I Took her out to eat, but somewhere out the way
45 mins little time to run this game
I need me a bitch that's ready to win
She hit for ten I'm on my way to the win
Living that life, dodging the vice
Hoes is right
(Ay baby hand me that bottle of water please)
