

Something Gotta Change

Larry June

Waking up hella early and shit
Sometimes you gotta sacrifice sleep for that bag
Especially when you got real life responsibilities
For real
And nigga I ain't takin no for an answer, nigga
I need all mine
Call it what you want, nigga
Nigga we only get one of these
Know what I'm sayin, this life shit forreal

Niggas don't even check on me, but askin' for somethin'
I need another hustle, this rap shit been treatin' me funny
All the sudden I got hella cousins (aye aye aye, aye aye aye)
They like tint the GT limo tint, fuck you mean?
I'm seeing progress, I'm like damn I really did that
But then it gets stressful again, and I'm like fuck that
But I keep going, 50 dollar cheese on my plate
Bitch that's boss shit, did the dash on the PCH
Gotta carsick

I been trying to get it my nigga, I try
If I lost it all would you stay by my side?
It's been so long I been feeling this way
Something gotta change, can't stay the same
I been trying to get it my nigga, I try
If I lost it all would you stay by my side?
It's been so long I been feeling this way
Something gotta change, can't stay the same

I can't do business with no nigga that be giving up
Scared to use they hands, but quick to grab a gun
Grab some yerb' tea before I pick that rollie up
I paid cash nigga, I ain't gotta scam nothin'
Fuck yo' advance, I pay myself 50 every month
Instead of hating take some notes, nigga and run it up
My overhead like 12K but that ain't really nothin'
I paid that nigga off straight passive income
I make time for my lady but always think money
Cause that new Ferrari thang, she can't get it for me
I come through and lay that pipe down like no other
Set the the alarm for 6am and then I'm back thuggin'

First you gotta find yo' passion, gotta keep mashin'
Gotta keep mashin', gotta set standards
Make sure it add up, make sure it add up

I been trying to get it my nigga, I try
If I lost it all would you stay by my side?
It's been so long I been feeling this way
Something gotta change, can't stay the same
I been trying to get it my nigga, I try
If I lost it all would you stay by my side?
It's been so long I been feeling this way
Something gotta change, can't stay the same

What's happenin'?
It's 9: 07, Saturday, September 21, 2019

Just had to document that (numbers)
Aye aye aye, aye aye aye
Gotta keep going, nigga (man)
Forreal, nigga
Ain't no stoppin'
Yeah
Aye aye aye, aye aye aye, aye aye aye
