

The Stuff

Lasse Lindh

When a man loves a woman, he gets to her, into her and onto her
When a man loves a woman, he knows just what to do
When a man loves a woman, he treats her good, he touches her and tells her things
When a man loves a woman, he knows just what to do
Give me the loving, give me the feeling, give me the touch
Give me the movement, give me the sorrow, give me the stuff
When a man loves a woman, he breaks her down he steals her lust and wears her out
When a man loves a woman, he knows just what to do
When a man loves a woman, he beats her up, abuses her and breaks her heart
When a man loves a woman, he knows just what to do
Give me the loving, give me the feeling, give me the touch
Give me the movement, give me the sorrow, give me the stuff
