

Tomorrow

Last Days Of April

I've been through this one to many times.
But you don't know this yet, tomorrow I will love you,
tonight I will forget.
Forget you ever met..

Tomorrow the last time, tomorrow the last time.
Tomorrow the last we speak the tomorrow the last but the one time we meet, tomorrow the last time. Tomorrow the last time. Tomorrow the last time.

I would offer you your weakly chance to forget you ever met, I would be brave until we met, I would be brave
until we met!
I'd been through this once to many times, have you notice
it yet? I will.
Tomorrow I will wake you, tonight I will not think. Would your voices echo in my ears?

Tomorrow the last time, tomorrow the last time, tomorrow
the last time we speak, the last one time we met.
Tomorrow the last time, tomorrow the last time, tomorrow
the last time, tomorrow the last time.
