

You know your not the only one
To see that boy that you, hold very close to you He's not your kind of guy i hope you realize

I have no care for answers Cause now you're standing lonely next to me, Oh
So take me on a tangent cause tangible is something we percieve
, Oh

I don't want to be just another
Fighter without fire, nothing to inspire.
In a million years when we're older finally we can be part of h istory.

For retrospective points of view
It's time to reinvent don't care to what extent Subconscious disarray, I want to look away I live the shadow pla y
I can tell the difference when everyone's pretending to play ba ll, Oh
Now i'm all for resistance but i can't take it anymore

I don't want to be just another
fighter without fire, nothing to inspire
in a million years when we're older finally we can be part of h istory (2x)
finally we can be part of history

You want to know how i call I told you, I tell myself it's alright alright, alright

I don't want to be just another
fighter without fire, nothing to inspire
in a million years when we're older finally we can be part of h istory (2x)
finally we can be part of history
