

Last Breath

Lastlings

All my senses are giving me light
I'm in motion
All these faces are blurred to the bone
So I keep on hunting

Life is standing still
Right in front of me
Sounds that I can't keep
Things I'll never get to reach
I'm dreaming
I'm sinking in
I was hoping you'd be there

Please don't say goodbye
I'll always turn to you
'Cause I want to see this through
Please don't say goodbye
I'll always turn to you
'Cause I want to see this through

All my questions have led me to run
I'm in motion
All these spaces are filled yet alone
So I keep on hunting

New light, new skin
New sights surrounding me
Sounds that I can't keep
Things I'll never get to reach
I'm dreaming
I'm sinking in
I was hoping you'd be there

(I will turn to you, I will always)
I'm dreaming
(I will turn to you, I will always)
I was hoping you'd be there
(I will turn to you, I will always)
I'm sinking in

Please don't say goodbye
I'll always turn to you
'Cause I want to see this through
Please don't say goodbye
I'll always turn to you
'Cause I want to see this through

I'm dreaming, I'm sinking in
(I was hoping you'd be there)
Won't fear it, just let it in
(I was hoping you'd be there)

Until our last breath
I was hoping you'd be there
I was hoping you'd be there
