

Best Friend

late night drive home

Tonight, you're waiting for the last hit
And now, you're trying to forget them
For now, I wanna be your best friend
For now, I wanna be your best friend
(For now, I wanna be your best friend)
(For now, I wanna be your best friend)
(For now, I wanna be your best friend)
Tonight, I wanna be, I wanna be
Tonight, I wanna be your best friend
Tonight, I wanna be your best friend
Tonight, I wanna be your best friend
Tonight, I wanna be, I wanna be

I can taste the liquor in the air
And it burns, it burns, it burns, it burns
It burns, it burns, it burns (just open to me)

You're left alone (tonight, you're waiting for the last hit)
All you know is that you'll be alone (and now, you're trying to forget them)
You're left alone (for now, I wanna be your best friend)
All I know is that you'll leave me (for now, I wanna be your best friend)
I won't leave me
I won't leave myself
I won't leave our town
Gone never now

Sometimes it's hard to open up
To you when you're running your mouth off
Never thought, whether or not if we talked
If things would stay the same
Never thought, whether or not if we talked
If things would stay the same

And now, I'm standing here
With my thoughts hanging out

Tonight, you're waiting for the last hit
And now, you're trying to forget them
For now, I wanna be your best friend
For now, I wanna be your best friend
(For now, I wanna be your best friend)
(For now, I wanna be your best friend)
(For now, I wanna be your best friend)
Tonight, I wanna be, I wanna be
Tonight, I wanna be your best friend
Tonight, I wanna be your best friend
Tonight, I wanna be your best friend
Tonight, I wanna be, I wanna be (best friend)

I can taste the liquor in the air
And it burns, it burns, it burns, it burns
It burns, it burns, it burns (just open to me)
(Just open to me)
(Just open to me)

Sometimes it's hard to open up
To you when you're running your mouth off

Never thought, whether or not if we talked
If things would stay the same
Sometimes it's hard to open up
To you when you're running your mouth off
Never thought, whether or not if we talked
If things would stay the same
Sometimes it's hard to open up
To you when you're running your mouth off
Sometimes (sometimes), whether or not if we talked
If things would stay the same
Never thought, whether or not if we talked (it burns, it burns) (just open t o me)
If things would stay the same (it burns, it burns) (just open to me)
