

Feeling Grey

late night drive home

How do you feel today?
Just tell it like it is

I'm feeling grey
I'm feeling grey

(I feel like a bum
I feel like a bum
I feel like a bum
I feel like a bum)

How do you feel today?
Just tell it like it is
I lie when I say, "I'm okay"
Just tell it like it is

I'm feeling grey
I'm feeling grey

(I feel like a bum
I feel like a bum)

How do you do it
When every bone in your body aches?
Gotta go outside on a sunny day
It's divine with your friends when you all break
It's a vibe for a moment on a Sunday
And as the stars fall
Open up with the words you say
Be there for my friends until my very last breath
And we'll all go through it
All go through it

I'm feeling grey
I'm feeling grey
I'm feeling grey
I'm feeling grey

Oh how can you tell when it's coming to an end?
The whole world stops but the Earth still spins
If you're lucky, you can keep a few of your friends
Feels like I'm standing on the edge
(It's the things you can't explain)

And when I open my mouth
The worst words seem to come out
Feels like I might drag someone else down
So I just keep to myself
So I just keep to myself

I'm feeling grey
I'm feeling grey
I'm feeling grey
I'm feeling grey

Leave all belongings on the floor
Hype myself up too much, I never win

They keep tryna call me, I never answer
Leave all belongings on the floor
Hype myself up too much, I never win
They keep tryna call me, I never answer

I never
And I stare
When you talk
It's my turn
And I'm scared, no words, just fear, and it hurts
When I'm scared, no words, just fear, and it hurts
And it hurts
