

Painted Lady

late night drive home

And you're the reason why I fell in love that night (that night)

Well, different seasons come and everything feels just right (that's right)

Your very presence is the color of pink
Until the end, I'll carry this shade on my sleeves

You're on my mind, I'm wasting time
Thinking of reasons I would call you mine
You're on my mind, I'm wasting time
Thinking of all the times I've seen you smile

Y es la razón mi mariposa esta con mi
Y es la razón mi mariposa esta aquí

And now you're mine, you make me smile
Driving around all through the night
And now you're mine, you make me smile
When we're together, it's a lovely high

And when you hold my hand, you make me wanna dance
(And you'll dance along with me)
And when you start to cry, I'll be right by your side (Wipe the tears right off your cheek)

And you're the reason why I fell in love that night
Until the end, we'll always feel just right
