

Perfect Strangers

late night drive home

Into my eyes, take you to September
It's the way you cared, helped me to remember-er-er
And I just wanted the moment to last
Stop and take a breath before we relapse

Should I change now or later, or never?
Or take me back to December

Stay strong (for) for me
Baby, we're changing, can't you see?

You can take what you want
We're not okay, we've made a mistake
Why can't the moment ever last?
Just stop and take a breath before we relapse

Should I change now or later, or never?
Or take me back to September

Stay strong for (for) me
Baby, we're changing, can't you see?

I loved you
I lo-o-oved me, too
I loved you
I lo-o-oved me, too
I loved you
I lo-o-oved me, too
I loved you
I lo-o-oved me, too (I loved you)
I loved you (I loved me, too)
I lo-o-oved me, too (I loved you)
I loved you (I loved me, too)
I lo-o-oved me, too (I loved you)
I loved you (I loved me, too)
I lo-o-oved me, too (I loved you)
I loved you (I loved me, too)
I lo-o-oved me, too (I loved you)
I loved you
I lo-o-oved me, too
I loved you
I lo-o-oved me, too
