

uncensored on the internet

late night drive home

You're so far from home, and you never came down
From your vaycay, when you ran away
And it stained everything with a gloomy haze
Counting down the days you felt insane

Picture's up online
And I'll try to find the right time to tell you
Everything is fine
You say, "Give me a few days to stay awake"

Uncensored online, you'll be known
Leave a trail, pay your bail, and come back home
Come back home

Your life escapes as I fade to grey
I'll be the same thing you swore to me I'd never see again

Uncensored online, you'll be known
Leave a trail, pay your bail, and come back home
Uncensored online, you'll be known
Leave a trail, pay your bail, and come back home

I'll be the same thing you swore to me
I'd never see that silly dream again
Again

Uncensored online, you'll be known
Leave a trail, pay your bail, and come back home

It's the way that you used to say
"I'll always be here when you're break"
It's the way that you used to say
"I'll always be here when you're break"
Now you live your days in a haze, and it's crazy
Now you live your days in a haze, and it's crazy
