

My life is a circus
Hold on for all I bring with me
You make me nervous
Take my sincere apology

For all of my oddities
My recurring comedies
I know I'm on a

Carousel spinning around
Floating up and down
Nowhere to go
Will you break the spell?
Tether me to your ground
Such a spectacle
You signed up for one hell of a
One man show
Tangled in ribbons
A lifelong role
Aren't you sorry that you fell?
Onto this carousel

The city of acrobats
Of clowns and illusory traps
With me
Was losing its wonder
I thought I would go under, till we met

I'm waiting for you to see
The things that are wrong with me
Before you're on my

Carousel spinning around
Floating up and down
Nowhere to go
Till you break the spell
Tether me to your ground
Such a spectacle
You signed up for one hell of a
One man show
Tangled in ribbons
A lifelong role
I'm so sorry that you fell
Onto this carousel
