

Fragile

Laufey

Will you let me come closer to you
I know that you're older, but what can I do
I leave in the morning I'll forget that I am surely falling

Grew up in a case of fragile glass
But hammer away it's time to crash
And as it shatters let me shatter into you

The soft candle glow
The music so slow
Your skin on my skin
The room is spinning
Nerve on my bone
I'm shaking oh no
I'm talking though I shouldn't be
I've lost all sensibility
I've never been so fragile

It's been a year and 40 days
Since you picked me up and swept me away
I wanted to run with you into the midnight sun with you

Now I sit around and rust in rain
Turn into dust as I just wait
For someone to hold me like you did that night I still remember

The soft candle glow
The music so slow
Your skin on my skin
The room kept spinning
Round I'm alone
New town on my own
I'm missing you I shouldn't be
I've lost all sensibility
I've never been so fragile
Fragile
