LAUNDRY DAY

Woke up in this bed, still dreaming
First things first, I'll be dancing on the ceiling
Stuffs all gone and I'm freezing
Can't even tell if my hearts still beating
I need something to ease this pain
Haven't seen your face since yesterday
And on this floor I'll stay lookin for the stars as they begin to fade

We just need some time
To readjust
And I feel you even when
I'm without your touch
And I know we need each other on the
Everyday
I don't know what to say

You got me seeing backwards
You got me seeing backwards
You got me seeing backwards

Staring at this wall, dumbfounded
Minds in the clouds, but my feet still grounded
I was lookin for a sound, now I've found it
So imma lay back, chill out, astounded
And I don't wanna ease this pain
I've been stepping on the breaks since yesterday
And in this crowd I'll stay
Lookin for the madness in a brand new way

We just need some time
To readjust
And I feel you even when
I'm without your touch
And I know we need each other on the
Everyday
And I
Don't know what to say

You got me seein
You got me seein
You got me seein backwards
Yeah, you got me seein
You got me seein backwards
You got me seein backwards
You got me seein back
You got me seein back
Oh you got me seein

You got me seein backwards
You got me seein backwards
You got me seein backwards
