

BENT

LAUNDRY DAY

(Cuz we all get bent sometimes)

Throw my hoodie on
Step outside
Ice in my veins and ice on the city sidewalk
Tryin' not to make eye contact
Keep my head down
Keepin' busy followin' my shadow

All alone
Walkin' down the road
Headphones on and I'm trying not to think about you
But it's cold, don't know where I'm going
Phone just died and I'm right outside of your apartment

Cause we all get bent sometimes
Even though we know something's not right
Even though the notes sound good, no lie
Heaven only knows how good we sound

You know what my ghost did
Loaded up, shooting at cans at your studio
I couldn't be focused
So we had it out
Screamed at me everything I'm doing wrong

Throw a line
Cause I'm downin' baby
We spent all that time and now were nothin' baby
Who was I
Damn what was I thinking
Or was it bout time before I drove you crazy

Choppin' onions
I'm crying cause I love you
You let me inside, now I'm wishing that I never knew ya
I heard the news I
Didn't have a clue I
Didn't even know what to do

Cause we all get bent sometimes
Even though we know something's not right
Even though the notes sound good, no lie
Heaven only knows how good we sound

And I'm sorry if I let you down
I get lost, you get defensive
But we all get bent sometimes
Heaven only knows I'll do my time

Look what you're holding
Pick it up, then you put it down
Look at the moment
When it's too late to turn around
You're thinking it's hopeless
They're wishing you well
You feel so unimportant

It makes you want to yell

Cause we all get bent sometimes
Even though we know something's not right
Even though the notes sound good no lie
Heaven only knows how good we sound

And I'm sorry if I let you down
I get lost, you get defensive
But we all get bent sometimes
Heaven only knows I'll do my time

(Cuz we all get bent sometimes)
