LAUNDRY DAY

I couldn't help but want you so close
It hurts to see you come and go
Stealing all the pictures in my phone
Act like I wouldn't know
I'm just staring at our flowers
I know my hour has come
I'm just staring at our flowers
I know my hour has come

And I know that I have loved you from the start
And I loved you right
I loved you from the heart baby
And I hold you tight
I hold you in my arms
And I loved you right
I loved you right

We kissed all night
We drink all night
We miss our flight
We miss our life
We kiss we bite
We wish we'd fight
We think we're right
We say goodbye

I know it's hard
We know it's hard
Cause we're so far away
We're so far away from the night in Central Park

I couldn't help but want you so close
It hurts to see you come and go
Stealing all the pictures in my phone
Act like I wouldn't know
I'm just staring at our flowers
I know my hour has come
I'm just staring at our flowers
I know my hour has come

This what you dreamed of, right?
(How'd you know what I dreamed of right?)
I was singing, did you sleep last night?
And my grandma thought I was suicidal
When I said, get me to the other side

And this what I hate about my life
I'm sick and tired of picking sides
I choose my time
Before I chose our life
And I loved you right
I loved you right
Oh, I

I couldn't help but want you so close
It hurts to see you come and go
Stealing all the pictures in my phone

Act like I wouldn't know (know)
I'm just staring at our flowers
I know my hour has come (Know that our time, know that our time is over)
I'm just staring at our flowers
I know my hour has come

Save me from the things I don't know
Cause you know how I lose control
Save me from the things I don't know
Cause you know how I lose control
