

Close Your Eyes

LAUNDRY DAY

Mmmmmmmmm, yeah yeah yeah
Close your eyes

Dirty stairwell
Baby this is farewell
Long nights, street fights
Basement's where the tears fell

Please hold my broken hand
I think my hearts been broke again

You said come over
So we could find some closure
I guess we lost it somewhere
Just like I lost composure

I slammed the door and ran
Why are we doin' this again?

Close your eyes
Take a deep breath because we're drowning
Hypnotized
Close your eyes

Wish I kissed you
But I'm a loser, it's true
So goodbye darling
Hope my texts went through

Wish I could phone a friend
But it's too late now
It's the end

Close your eyes
Take a deep breath because we're drowning
Hypnotized
Close your eyes

Meet me outside the train
Where I'm waiting out for you
I've been waiting all week for you
I've been waiting all week for you

We've been talking for a month or two
Baby I ain't got nothing to lose this time

Come and take a walk with me
So I can hear about you day
And I can hear about your night last night
Know you had a crazy night last night

You're so cute with your beautiful eyes
So cute when you look in my eyes
I can't describe

Meet me outside the train
Where I'm waiting out for you

I've been waiting all week for you
I've been waiting all week for you

We've been talking for a month or two
Baby I ain't got nothing to lose this time

And I don't think you know
What you mean to me
And I don't think you know
You're the world to me
