LAUNDRY DAY

Screeching out to you
Breathing loud for you
In and out of blue
Who's gon' take me home?
Who's gon' take me home?
Quick with gratitude
Quick to have a clue
But I'm blind to you
If you take me home, where you gonna go?
I'll stay back for you
I'll run laps for you

It's off, it's lost, it's lovely
Hold on, hold on, it's lovely

Is it ok if I run away?
Is it ok if I don't know what to say?
Is it ok if I need to complain?
Can't see you tomorrow, can I see you today?
Can I see you today?
I've been losing sleep, staying awake
I'm waiting, dreams that come and go
(Can I see you today? Can I see you today?)
The race for open space
Maybe this pen can paint a place that I don't know
(Can I see you today? Can I see you? Can I see you?)
Oh we play games 'til the red of the morning
Things don't change and we take what's important
We don't talk and we sit and it's boring
I just look at my phone trying to ignore that
I feel like a stranger in my own skin
My room's a mess, I'm afraid to let you in

You're all I know
It's hard to go, it's hard
My love, we made mistakes
We'd stay awake
What life I lead

It's off, it's lost, it's lovely
Hold on, hold on, it's lovely

Señorita, I'd like you to see
This book I've been writing since 2000-something
I'd mail it to you if you'd choose to read
Have you heard the news about me?
Have you heard the news about me?
Mona Lisa, the beauty I see
I'm always wondering who you'll grow up to be
I'm sailing towards you across seven seas
Have you heard the news about me?
Have you heard the news about me?

Have you heard the news about me?
Have you heard the news about me?
Have you heard the news about me?
Have you heard the news about me?

Have you heard the news about me?
Have you heard the news about me?
Have you heard the news about me?
Have you heard the news about me?
Have you heard the news about me? (have you heard the news?)
Have you heard the news about me? (have you heard the news?)
Have you heard the news about me? (have you heard the news?)
Have you heard the news about me? (have you heard the news about me?)
