

Little While

LAUNDRY DAY

I like to think that I am reckless
I like the way that I forget I'm just a fish in this big sea
I like to think that I'm so helpless
But in the end we all the same and I ain't going through it
My daddy said he liked the album
My sister's got another album on the way
My grandma told me I'll be somethin
My mama turned me into something
Straight from nothing, listen

Livin' in a world so small
Great big things, haven't seen 'em all
Oh, one day I'll be ten feet tall
But not for a little while
Spent 16 years in the same old room
Makin' records for the heck of "it'll pay off soon"
I been waterin', and waterin' the flowers gon' bloom
But not for a little while

I bet the music drives you crazy
I bet your friends made up a story
Now you're curious about me
They only take in what they wanna
And they can hit me, but the minute I hit back?
Apologies
There ain't no truth in second chances
I've given all of me and everything to people who don't change
I laugh it out, cause it's no problem
They'll be expecting front row seats and meet and greets, but listen

Livin' in a world so small
Great big things, haven't seen em all
Oh, one day I'll be ten feet tall
But not for a little while
Spent 16 years in the same old room
Makin' records for the heck of "it'll pay off soon"
I been waterin', and waterin' the flowers gon' bloom
But not for a little while

Livin' in a world so small (livin' in a world)
Great big things, haven't seen em all
Oh, one day I'll be ten feet tall
But not for a little while (not for little while)
Spent 16 years in the same old room
Makin' records for the heck of "it'll pay off soon" (pay off soon)
I been waterin', and waterin' the flowers gon' bloom
But not for a little while (not for a little while)

Not for a little while
Not for a little while
Not for a little while
Not for a little while
