

The Knots

LAUNDRY DAY

Are you ready now?
Do you need it now?
Did you have your fun?
Done playing around?
Were you waiting around?
Can you do it now?
Will you tell me why?
Well I don't know how

Put your guard up
Build it high
Watch it go up
To the sky
Try to knock it
Down to size
Well I don't want to try

Feel them stare in
To your spine
Wonderin' what they Say so quiet
Tell them what you think you'd like
Or will you go and tie up all the knots inside?

Throw your smile on
Let it rise up
It all comes back around
It all comes back around
20 years from now
I hope you learned about how
The knots will tie you down
The knots will tie you down

Please don't make me
Ruin the night
I would hate to
Be that guy
I wish you could read my mind
'Cause I don't wanna try

Throw your smile on
Let it rise up
It all comes back around
It all comes back around
20 years from now
I hope you learned about how
The knots will tie you down
The knots will tie you down

[illegible]

Are you ready now?
Are you ready now?
Are you ready now?
Are you ready now?
Are you ready now?
Are you ready now?
Are you ready now?
Are you ready now?

Throw your smile on
Let it rise up
It all comes back around
It all comes back around
20 years from now
I hope you learned about how
The knots will tie you down
20 years from now
I hope you learned about how
The knots will tie you down

The knots will tie you down
