

Thunder And Rain

LAUNDRY DAY

Losing somebody is like, when you're out in the forest, and you're hiking together, and you lose the girl, but you still have the boy...

Where's the love when you need some
Sun is shining but its dark
While I'm asleep, my minds awake
Thinking of the other day

The future's painted black
So I keep looking back

Thunder and rain
Even clouds can't hide the pain
Thunder and rain
Lightning strikes inside my brain

Remember when life was fair?
Remember when we didn't care?
Inside my head it's undefined
Guess we just ran out of time

The days pass by
Can't get her off my mind

Thunder and rain
Even clouds can't hide the pain
Thunder and rain
Lightning strikes inside my brain

These things take time they all say
But I cannot waste time
I wish that we were fine
I hate to see her cry

Thunder and rain
Pains me I'm the reason for her pain
Thunder and rain
Will things ever be the exact same
Thunder and rain
Pains me I'm the reason for her pain
Thunder and rain
Will things ever be the exact same

Thunder and rain
Even clouds can't hide the pain
Thunder and rain
Lightning strikes inside my brain

Thunder and rain
