

Fallin'

Laura Bell Bundy

Patsy says "crazy" but I say love...
And maybe one day it won't be this tough.
I watch you walk away.
I'm tired but I gotta say...
That baby I'm fallin' for you.

Sugar, it's time to go.
I'm hopin' the traffic's slow.
Cause if you miss that flight,
Oh, You'll get to stay the night.
And I'll say "I'm fallin' for you..."

It's been a while since
I've seen that smile.
When you're around, I feel just like a child.

I told you that I was scared and totally unprepared,
But you don't seem to mind.
And Honey, I like that just fine.
Could it be that you're fallin' too?

It's been a while since
I've seen that smile.
When you're around I feel just like a child...

Take me away with you.
Or Baby stay a few...
I could lie and keep my pride,
And keep my lips shut tight, but the truth is
I'm fallin' for you.

Hm yeah, the truth is...
I'm "crazy" for you.
