

Good Guy

Laura Bell Bundy

I love you
I want you

Today I saw you choose
To hear my truth
To open up your heart
When I know it's hard to do

So, I put down my sword
You put down your defense
Looked me in the eye
And with your humor we made sense

You're a good guy
You see thru my eyes
I could touch the sky
You keep an offered hand
And give more than you take
I can love you till the very end

Je taime

Always makin' the plans, you check the laundry 'off the list'
My favorite view is you, with a baby on your hip

You hold the ladder, while I take the climb
To hang a family portrait made of our own design

You're a good guy
You keep me on time... when the time is finally mine
Making sure you understand
And baby that makes you a man
And I will love you till the very end

2, 3, 4

You always take my baggage
You'll gladly take my purse
Open doors to pave the way, you always say 'no you go first'

You're a good guy
You're on my side
Even when we slip and slide
I hope by now you really know
That we don't go instead we grow
And I'll love you to the very end

I love you

I want you
