

Long Blonde Hair

Laura Bell Bundy

There's somethin' that I wanna know,
how far will a woman go.
When you got somethin' that she wants.
She will be your friend thill the day...
She tries to steal your man away.

She was a teasin' venus flytrap looking for a night cap
Gonna stab me in the back.
I looked her in the eye and said
"Hey ya got as much makeup on your other face."

With your long blonde hair, and coal black heart.
She's got that long blonde hair, and coal black heart.

Now, I must admit you're pretty cute,
But that's your only attribute.
A heart as dark as your roots.
He's the only fool that don't see.
The fool you're trying to make of me.

You know I've seen this act before,
The she-wolf howlin' at the door
Smellin' like a french whore.
Gonna wish that you were dead,
I'll drag your white trash out of bed...

By your long blonde hair and coal black heart.
You got that long blonde hair and coal black heart.
Coal black heart.

Long blonde hair, and a coal black heart.
I know that long blonde hair and a coal black heart.
Amen.

Lemme ask you somethin'. Does the patch match?
'Cause I know him and it's not just about long blonde hair,
it's about short blonde hair too.
I know that you know that they're all pigs, but honey,
I like my pig and you can get your bacon somewhere else.

Now how do you think I know so much about long blonde hair and coal black hearts?
I know you're mama! She's an old Kentucky hoe.
