

When

Laura Branigan

When will the waiting end will it really end at all
Am I just a dreamer will you ever hear my call
When will the sound of you stop ringing in my ear
And When will your shadow disappear
And When will you love me for a thousand years
Till than am I just a dreamer like everybody says

When will I feel you round me like a cyclone round the wind
And When will this waiting (When will it end?)
When will this waiting
When will the waiting end?
When?
