

Soljah

Laura Jansen

I want to be a soljah for your love,
I want to be a soljah for your love

My eyes have finally adjusted to the light down here below
My eyes can finally see everything real that's real to me

I was a hungry soldier
I move like a broken train
Looking for the way to go Hungry for a little grain

But this is the truth and the truth is the love and the love is all we need,

I want to be a soljah for your love,
I want to be a soljah for your love

My song was long forgotten
My heart moved without a beat
I heard your voice there in the silence
And in the stillness the music was revealed

This is the truth and the truth is the love
and the love is all we need,

Surrender
That's what you gotta do
Surrender
That's what you gotta do
Surrender
Surrender
Surrender
