

Arrow (Preview)

Laura Marano

Known you a long time
Who knew that tonight
You'd look like your mine
Been wanting you all my life

Say hi to you
Say hi to me
We act the roles so casually
Same game we played before, same strategy

We hit it off so naturally
Someone would think we're meant to be
Movin' close to something happening

Cupid's in the air tonight
He got an arrow in a gunfight
Too hard to resist
