

Forgiven

Laura Story

Do you remember
The last hand that was held out to you,
The last time you heard the words inviting you to come,
The last time there were arms open wide for you
Do you remember
Ever knowing anyone
Who saw you as someone
Who called you by name and said

Forgiven
Every word and deed you are forgiven
He says to you, my child,
You are chosen, you are loved
You are forgiven

Do you remember
Last time you truly felt safe
The last time you were honest about you feeling pain
Knowing there was someone who could take that guilt away
Do you remember
When you heard the words of love
Living in your heart
That you are worth the cost

You are forgiven
Every word and deed you are forgiven
He says to you, my child,
You are chosen, you are loved
You are forgiven

I am set free
All my stains are washed clean
Jesus, my God and King
Thank You for saving me

I am forgiven
I am forgiven
I am chosen, I am loved
I am forgiven

I have been set free, I've been forgiven
You say to me, my child,
You are chosen, you are loved
And that will always be enough
I am forgiven
