

Ring Song

Laura Veirs

Fast forwarding clouds and my plough
Time among the hurried
Goes sundial slow and neon now
Lady I unburied
Stars they fall and stars they rise
Fading and growing
Shy in the day, wild in the night
I'm here doom scrolling

I pawned my wedding ring
At the silver lining

I felt sad, I also felt a weight go flying

The one I loved, a peregrine
Pinpoint in the sky
I miss the days with sandy legs
Into the Aegean we dived
Maybe you'll hear me on the radio
Maybe I'll see you in a dream
Maybe next time I'll wake up
When the hall of mirrors gleams

I pawned my wedding ring
At the silver lining

I felt bad, I also felt a weight go flying
