Laurel Halo

Rules stagnate, mountains fall
The hive mind, major mine
Minor kind

Tight figures falling
Stare at my bed, feel nothing

Want to realize you're my dream
You go and scale walls idly

Words are just words
Words are just words
That you soon forget
Machine stains
Machine stains and empty silhouettes

Beautiful world only to the moon
Tight figures falling, stare at my bed feel nothing
Want to realize it's a dream
You go and scale walls idly

Words are just words
Words are just words
That you soon forget
Machine stains
Machine stains and empty silhouettes

Words are just words
Words are just words
That you soon forget
Machine stains
Machine stains and empty silhouettes
