

Appetite

Laurel

Caught up in a fight with you, let's go
Back under the sheets, say that it won't happen again, no
Tempers in a sauna, I tried to warn ya
Find it hard to sleep when I'm headstrong
Suddenly everything is going wrong

Get it right
It's like you're tryna make me lose my appetite
We're heading to a second sun
Start a fight
I know that it's not over when we say goodnight
While my mind is starting to run

Wrestle with my recklessness oh
Shouting in the shower, you're always short of a breath oh
Giving me the power, sweet like the sour
Taste left in my mouth on the way home
Burning from the heat of your halo

Get it right
It's like you're tryna make me lose my appetite
We're heading to a second sun
Start a fight
I know that it's not over when we say goodnight
While my mind is starting to run

Mm ah
Mm ah
Mm ah (Tryna stay together)
Mm ah
Mm ah
Mm ah
Mm ah (Tryna stay together)

Blue eyes, won't you
Blue eyes, won't you let it go
Won't you let it go
Push back, won't you
Push back, won't you let it go
Won't you let it go

Get it right
It's like you're tryna make me lose my appetite
We're heading to a second sun
Start a fight
I know that it's not over when we say goodnight
While my mind is starting to run

Get it right
It's like you're tryna make me lose my appetite
We're heading to a second sun
Start a fight
I know that it's not over when we say goodnight
While my mind is starting to run

Mm ah
Mm ah

Mm ah (Tryna stay together)
Mm ah
