

Deathwish

Laurel

Love holds me tight
I found my heart on fire

Giving in, I tell you all the time
That I don't even know the reason why I'm falling
Backwards through everything we did
It's fading, but I guess that I still miss you calling

'Cause you got a deathwish
Not gonna survive this
Holding me hostage in your arms
Forgetting my standards
You're buying me flowers
Feeding me fortunes in parking lots

'Cause you got a deathwish
Not gonna survive this
Holding me hostage in your arms
Forgetting my standards
You're buying me flowers
Feeding me fortunes in parking lots

'Cause you got a deathwish
Not gonna survive this
Holding me hostage in your arms
Forgetting my standards
You're buying me flowers
Feeding me fortunes in parking lots
