

Same Mistakes

Laurel

Know that it ain't easy, but I guess you tried to please me
Am I getting your attention with the opposite of affection? Oh, oh

And I guess I wanna leave, oh wait
Patience, you said, "oh wait"
I found you latching on
And I guess you wanna leave
Oh wait, stationary, oh wait
I guess I'm latching on

I don't want you
But I still want you to love me
Yeah, I said "I don't want you
But I still want you to love me"

And I lay awake
Making the same mistake
Thinking of you
All I think of is touching you

And I guess we're back to talking
But it's never been a walk in the park
And I notice you've been jealous
But I think it's just a present for parting the ways

And I guess I wanna leave, oh wait
Patience, you said, "oh wait"
I found you moving on
And I guess you wanna leave
Oh wait, stationary, oh wait
I guess you moving on

I don't want you
But I still want you to love me
Yeah, I said "I don't want you
But I still want you to love me"

And I lay awake
Making the same mistake
Thinking of you
All I think of is touching you
And you lay awake
Making the same mistake
Thinking of me
All you think of is touching you

I waited down on the sea
Here you come, are you coming for me?
Screaming "how could you move on?"
When you're still bad in love with me
I don't wanna wait anymore
I don't wanna say anymore
I don't wanna think anymore
But I love it with you
I don't wanna think anymore
But I love it with you
I don't wanna think anymore

But I love it with you
I don't wanna think anymore
But I love it with you

But I lay awake
Making the same mistake
Thinking of you
All I think of is touching you
And you lay awake
Making the same mistake
Thinking of me
All you think of is touching you
