

Shells

Laurel

Make me feel again
The sea is cold my only friend
I don't want to be alone
On the shells, on the shore

Skin and bones, we've lost ourselves
Holding onto all we felt
You pushed me out to survive
I fell in love just in time

But does she have what you want
Does she love how I love
Is she everything you need
Colder you are making me fall I am breaking
Love hurts when it's all you need
And you're breaking me

Staring into the dark
Scared to go back to the start
I'll hurt and you will heal
Nothingness is all I feel

But does she have what you want
Does she love how I love
Is she everything you need
Colder you are making me fall I am breaking
Love hurts when it's all you need
And you're breaking me

I walk into the wind
The sea's waves against my skin
Empty hand and tired eyes
Leave me here I'll be fine

But does she have what you want
Does she love how I love
Is she everything you need
Colder you are making me fall I am breaking
Love hurts when it's all you need
And you're breaking me
And you're breaking me
And you're breaking me
