

On Top Of The World

Lauren Alaina

I wore these high heels, black dress, red lips to turn heads all night
I did my hair up, showed up in a little more makeup 'cause I thought you might

Be here with your friends
Somewhere in the dark
I'll be damned if I look like you broke my heart

Life of the party
Pass me a drink
Lips on somebody
You'd never think
I'm drinking about still being your girl
Hitting rock bottom
Sitting pretty on top of the world

Posing for photos, hit post, dancing real close to some blue eyes
I'm playing pretend all weekend hoping that you see it 'cause I thought you might

Be here with your friends
Somewhere in the dark
I'll be damned if I look like you broke my heart

Life of the party
Pass me a drink
Lips on somebody
You'd never think
I'm drinking about still being your girl
Hitting rock bottom
Sitting pretty
On top of a barstool throwing back beers
Playing it cool but I'm holding back tears
I'm drinking about still being your girl
Hitting rock bottom
Sitting pretty on top of the world

Sitting pretty on top of the world

Honestly, I almost stayed home, but I'd rather be faking than drinking alone

Life of the party
Pass me a drink
Lips on somebody
You'd never think
I'm drinking about still being your girl
Hitting rock bottom
Sitting pretty
On top of a barstool throwing back beers
Playing it cool but I'm holding back tears
I'm drinking about still being your girl
Hitting rock bottom
