

Ghost

Lauren Cimorelli

He's my ghost
Everywhere I go
He's always close
He's my ghost

I sink into my sheets
It's only seven twenty three
I close my eyes and he's here with me

He's burned into my brain
He's got me with a ball and chain
And I know I will never be the same
Since he said hello
He's my ghost

And he's long gone
But I won't move on
Cause he's all that means anything to me anymore
I know it's kind of sick
To lead me on like this
But I'm a perfect hurricane that you can't ignore

I watch you fall
I watch you run
I watch you perfectly cool and okay while I'm coming undone

He's my ghost
He's my ghost
He won't let me go
He's my ghost
And I don't know how to forget
They keep telling me he's dead
But he's alive in my memory
I'll never let him go
He's my ghost
