

Gone

Lauren Cimorelli

Time
I could never give you enough
Signs
That I never could be the one
So Tired
From always trying to be what you want
High
But we both know that isn't love

And you text me
Say you're free now
But I'm busy
And you freak out
And you call me
You're so sorry

And it took me so long
But I knew it was wrong
Let it go and move on
Cause you never really loved me
You can tell your friends I'm crazy
I know they already hate me
I had to stop holding on
So now I'm gone
So now I'm gone

Days
Slowly they're turning into months
Faint
But the writings already on the wall
You say
It's getting better but that's so wrong
Stay
But we both know you're not the one

You say you give me
More than you take
But what you give me
Is a headache
And I'm sorry
But it's so true
It's not me it's you

And it took me so long
But I knew it was wrong
Let it go and move on
Cause you never really loved me
You can tell your friends I'm crazy
I know they already hate me
I had to stop holding on
So now I'm gone
So now I'm gone
So now I'm gone
So now I'm gone

You can tell your friends I'm crazy
I know they already hate me

I had to stop holding on Cause it's not me it's you

And it took me so long
But I knew it was wrong
Let it go and move on
Cause you never really loved me
You can tell your friends I'm crazy
I know they already hate me
I had to stop holding on
So now I'm gone
So now I'm gone
So now I'm gone
So now I'm gone
