

Persephone

Lauren Hoffman

Man walk beside me,
In shadows side long glance,
Never dead on stare,
For your razor tease my arms bare,
Persephone.
Teeth sting sweet,
And eyes closed in the love of blood.
Stupor of a quaalude dream,
Ride tequila acid-wave,
Hold my hand in powder stream,
To get me through,
Mortality alone or eternity with you,
Mortality alone or eternity with you,
Persephone, persephone.
And if you kiss me forever,
If you kiss me with your forever lips,
If you kiss me forever,
I'll be forever yours,
Persephone.
Man walk beside me,
In shadows side long glance,
Never dead on stare,
For your razor tease my arms bare,
Persephone.
Teeth sting sweet,
Eyes closed in the love of blood.
And if you kiss me forever,
If you kiss me with your forever lips,
If you kiss me forever,
I'll be forever yours.
If you kiss me forever,
If you kiss me with your forever lips,
If you kiss me forever,
I'll be forever yours.
(If you kiss me) I'll be forever yours,
I'll be forever yours,
I'll be forever yours,
Be forever yours.
