

Inside

Lauren Jauregui

Every time I try to, try to Find you, I seem to lose you
I wanna get a little more closer, do you mind?
'Cause lately I've been trying to see you
A little clearer for the real you
Scattered thoughts and twisted feelings
You left behind

They keep haunting me
Clouding and drowning me
Please, search carefully
When I open up this time

It's what is on inside, inside, inside
Is gonna get you through it
It's what is on inside, inside, inside
Is gonna get you through it
Maybe I'll get it one day
It's what is on inside, inside, inside
Is gonna get you through it

There's a place, a light to go to
My own space away from their truth
My truth and only mine can govern me
There's been so many voices, bitter thoughts
But fuck your projections, I'm running through them
Nobody louder or closer to me than me now, than me now

Haunting me
Clouding and drowning me
Please, search carefully
When I open up this time

It's what is on inside, inside, inside
Is gonna get you through it
It's what is on inside, inside, inside
Is gonna get you through it
Maybe I'll get it one day
It's what is on inside, inside, inside
Is gonna get you through it
