Just Like Water

Lauryn Hill

Moving down the streams of my lifetime Pulls the fascination in my sleeve Cooling off the fire on my longing Boiling off my cold within his heat

Melting down the walls of inhibition Evaporating all of my fears Baptizing me into complete submission Dissolving my condition with his tears

He's just like the water I ain't felt this way in years He's just like the water, the water I ain't felt this way in years

Coursing through my senses, he's prevailing Floating through the space of my design Drowning me to find my inside sailing Drinking in the mainstream of his mind

Filling up the cup of my emotions Spilling over into all I do If I only I could get lost in his ocean Surviving on the thought of loving you

He's just like the water I ain't felt this way in years, in years He's just like the water, the water I ain't felt this way in years

Bathing in the fountain of his essence He causes my expression to remain Humbled on a mountain by his presence Washing my intentions with his name

Sealing off the floodgates of his passions Saving all his liquid for his own Moisturizing me to satisfaction In my imagination, no, no

He's pouring out his soul to me for hours and hours Drawing out my nature with his hands Yearning, I'm so thirsty for his power Burning to be worthy of his land

He's just like the water I ain't felt this way in years He's just like the water I ain't felt this way in years

Cleaning me, he's purging me And moving me around He's bathing me and he's claiming me And moving me around, around And around and around and around

Watching me, claiming me

Moving me around He's purging me, he's been cleaning me And moving me around and around And around, around, around

Moving me around
